

Boys Varsity Baseball Finish 12th in Scholar Athlete Teams in the State

Monday, 15 June 2009

Out of over 800 New York State Public and Private High Schools, the Lake Shore Eagles baseball team finished 12th in the state with a team average of 93.684. Harborfields of Section 11 won the state title with a 96.23 average. The Eagles finished 2nd in Section VI, only Sweet Home (94.872) was higher. The eleven student-athletes are: Eric Renn, Jason Radwan, Jim Evancho, Matt Boye, Nick Ellington, Josh Gotsch, RC Hubbard, Dylan Hammer, Jared Freeman, Kyle Schmidle, and Mike Waring. Also, for the first time in school history the Eagles earned two spots on the Academic All-Western New York Baseball Team, as Jason Radwan and Eric Renn earned spots. The entire program is very proud of them.
