

Lake Shore School Counseling Department wins New York State Award

Monday, 02 November 2009

Last Updated Tuesday, 03 November 2009

The Lake Shore K-12 School Counseling Department was awarded the New York State Outstanding School Counseling Program by the New York State School Counselors Association (NYSSCA) at the state convention on Friday, October 23rd in Syracuse, New York.

School Counseling Department Chairperson, Steve Brown, High School Interim Principal, Chris Walsh, High School Counselor, Heather Boncore and Elementary School Counselors, Beth McCuen, Michelle Myles and Leslie Grimaldi attended the awards ceremony. In receiving this award the Lake Shore School Counseling Department competed against schools across New York State. Lake Shore Central School District is the first district in Western New York to be bestowed this honor.

Robert Rotunda, NYSSCA President announced that the Lake Shore Central School District's Comprehensive School Counseling Program is the state model for districts across New York State to follow. This claim is truly a reflection of the excellence of this district in serving the needs of the whole school community .